

Seasonings that make snacking tastier

Savorly

Seasonings with top notes

Keva presents Savorly, seasoning solution for savoury snacks manufacturers. We create a wide range of seasonings for application on savoury snacks. To give a signature taste and enhance aroma, we formulate distinct seasoning blends by adding flavour top notes besides regular herbs and spices.

We also offer just the top notes to the customers who want to formulate their own seasonings or use flavours in their products. Our team constantly analyses market trends and consumer insights to come up with unique offerings that can give a competitive advantage to our customers.

Seasonings for ready to eat snacks

Our seasonings are used as snack dusting, coating or in slurry applications. We offer a wide range of snack seasonings to give it a special taste. It can be applied to a wide range of snacks items such as chips, pop corns, fox nuts, baked thins & extruded snacks.
