INTRODUCING ROSEHIP

We are excited to introduce you to our wild-harvested, organic certified rosehip from the Drakensberg mountains of Lesotho. Our range of rosehip products covers every sphere of natural product applications: cosmetics, food and beverage, and nutraceuticals.

At Afraceuticals, we take immense pride in delivering exceptional rosehip products with a strong emphasis on responsible trade, sustainability, and traceability. Our dedicated sales team shares a genuine passion for everything rosehip, and we are thrilled to explore how we can best serve you.
